

Descendants of John Walker

Generation 1

1. John Walker-1 was born on 29 Dec 1736 in Scotland (or maybe Virginia)^[1]. He died on 29 Mar 1810 in Alamance County, NC (DAR says 1 Dec 1809)^[1]. He married Nancy Ashford in 1756 in Orange County, NC, daughter of Michael Ashford and Rachel Nelville. She was born on 13 Dec 1725^[1]. She died on 13 Oct 1796 in Alamance County, NC^[1].

Notes for John Walker:

According to Claude Levi Walker: John Walker was the Pioneer. Had eleven sons; four lived in Caswell County, five in Alamance/Orange, two went west.

Other sources: Came to NC from western PA. Lt. Col. in NC Regiment of (illegible - Per?nier)

Captain of First North Carolina Regiment, September 1, 1775; Major, April 26, 1777; Lt Col and Aide-de-Camp to Gen Washington, February 17, 1777.

Birth date is also possibly 1737.

Walker Roots: John Walker and Nancy Ashford emigrated to America from Ireland around the middle of the 18th century, settling in Orange co. Where? Remember Orange and Alamance were one county at that time. They both were members of Cross Roads Presbyterian Church and are buried in the church cemetary.

According to John Fox, Winston Salem:

I am a descendant of John Graham and his second wife, Mary Bird, daughter of James Bird and his wife, Mary Ashford. I strongly believe Mary and Ann Ashford were sisters; both daughters of Michael and Ann Ashford of Maryland and Virginia, who at the time of their almost simultaneous deaths, held land on the Potomack, which was sold by a son, George Ashford, who administered the estate, to George Washington to add to his Mt. Vernon Plantation. Mary Ashford and James Bird were married in New Castle, Delaware in 1745 in Old Swede's Church; and I am pretty much of the opinion that perhaps John Walker was of that part of the country as well. The Walker lineage had stated that John Walker was born in Ireland and had immigrated to American, but that does not seem to ring true for me. It would seem more likely that he were a first generation American.

Notes for Nancy Ashford:

Sheri Lynn Walker's oral interview with Claude Levi Walker yielded a name of Mary Hurdle. He said she was from Mebane, NC.

Walker Roots: Buried in Cross Roads Cemetary, Cross Roads Presbyterian Church plot 190 left front section.

Birth date seems wrong, she is much too old to have birthed Joshua in 1789. Could this have been a 1755 misread off the tombstone?

From "Walker Roots":

The following is a feature from a booklet "150 Years in Fayette County":

WILLISTON

In 1848 Job and Sarah Garrison Walker, natives of Orange County, N.C., moved to Fayette county, bringing with them 11 members of their family. Mr. Walker was 62 years old at the time, and his wife was nine years younger.

Members of the family group were Dr. and Mrs. J. G Walker and their son, Andrew H. Walker; Ilverson Jones Walker, who married Sarah Ann Currie of Haywood County, Tennessee; Milendia Walker Parks, her husband, James N. Parks, and their daughter, Mary J. Parks; Nancy Walker, who married the Rev. William M. McFerrin of Fayette County; and Artilia Walker.

They build a one and one-half story log house on the site of the present home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Owen; thus beginning the little settlement known as Walker Station.

After the close of the Civil War, residents of the area began looking toward growth and development of the community. They turned to Henry Willis, who owned land and a store one mile south of Walker Station, near the Jones Chapel Community, and asked him to move his business to Walker Station, where the Memphis and Charleston Railroad had a spur track. They thought that this move would encourage others to locate in the community.

Mr. Willis would not agree to move unless the people would agree to change the name of the community to Williston. His request was granted, and others followed him, as had been predicted.

Child of Jobe Walker and Sarah Garrison is:

21. i. Harrison Walker, B: 20 Jun 1815, D: 13 May 1853.

From U. of Penn web page at <http://www.med.upenn.edu/history.html>

The University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine was the first and only medical school in the thirteen American colonies when, in the fall of 1765, students enrolled for "anatomical lectures" and a course on "the theory and practice of physick." They enrolled at the College of Philadelphia, which was the name of the University of Pennsylvania in pre-Revolutionary times.

The founder of the School of Medicine was a young Philadelphia physician, John Morgan. The early faculty, including Morgan, had earned medical degrees at the University of Edinburgh and supplemented Edinburgh's courses with further study in London. London offered advanced training in anatomy in private schools owned by men who had become famous in this field. The clinical practice of medicine was taught by eminent preceptors in the great city hospitals.

Because of their training abroad, the University's founding faculty introduced two important elements in American medical education. With the University of Edinburgh as their model, they chose to build their medical school within an institution of higher learning. With the background of their hospital experience in London, they chose to emphasize the need to supplement medical lectures with bedside teaching, which for some time had been provided to apprentice physicians by practitioners at the Pennsylvania Hospital. Founded by Benjamin Franklin, this hospital was located within a few blocks of the college.

Notes for Rachel Hurdle:

Rachel is buried at Kerr Chapel near her son, Anderson Bruce Walker; not at Cross Roads with her husband, Dr. Levi Walker. Note that she lived 40 years longer than Levi. In addition, Anderson Bruce's wife lived only 5 years after they were married. They had 2 children under 5 years old, and a step-child, Ben Anna Walker. Therefore, I (J F Walker) believe that Rachel lived with her son, Anderson Bruce Walker and reared the children. Aunt Alice remembered being shown Rachel's grave by my father, Claude who said that this was "papa's grandmother who raised him".

It can also be noted that Dr. Levi Walker and Rachel Hurdle had 8 children in the 14 years they were married before his death. I don't have birth dates for most of the children, but some of them, at least, must have been very young at his death. Anderson Bruce must have been the oldest son, and would have been 13 years old at his fathers death. I believe that he became the man of the family at that time.

Children of Levi Walker and Rachel Hurdle are:

29. i. Anderson Bruce Walker, B: 15 Dec 1831 in probably in Orange or later Alamance County NC, D: 11 Dec 1895, M: Henrietta (Harriet) Walker, 1866 in West Tennessee.

He married Martha Currie on 11 Sep 1825 in Caswell Co, NC, daughter of James Currie Jr and Sarah Black. She was born on 11 Nov 1804 in Orange County, NC. She died on 04 Sep 1865.

Notes for Empson Walker:

Martha's grand parents came to America from Ireland in 1758 and settled in V A, later moving to Caswell County, NC. Empson and Martha lived in NC until 1842 when they left for Haywood County, TN by wagon train. They raised three sons and four daughters. We do not know all their names and the order of their birth. We have listed Aaron⁴ Walker first. He made the trip to West Tennessee with his family when he was 14 years old. (1) Aaron⁴ Walker, (2) Jim⁴ Walker, (3) Harriet⁴ Walker, (4) Bettie⁴ Walker, (5) Sallie⁴ Walker, (6) Martha⁴ (Puss) Walker, and (7) William⁴ Moore Walker.

Aaron's family lived about 10 miles north of Hillsborough, NC. Aaron's father, Empson Walker settled about one mile from the Walker home site. In 1842, when Aaron was 14 years old, his father moved his family to Haywood County, TN. Aaron's uncle, Ashford Walker had moved to Haywood County, TN about 12 years earlier, in 1830. It took the Empson⁵ Walker family 33 days to make the trip by wagon from Orange County, NC to Haywood county, TN. When passing through Nashville, the Walker family stopped at the Hermitage for water and General Andrew Jackson came out to greet them and wish them well on their journey. When they arrived in Haywood County, Aaron's family settled two miles northwest of Brownsville (In direction of Nut Bush). Aaron and Martha had nine known children: (1) Matie³ Walker, 2) Pattie³ Walker, (3) Bettie³ Walker, (4) Estelle³ Walker, (5) Pettus³ Walker, (6) Aaron³ Walker, (7) James³ Walker, (8) Empson³ E. Notes for James Walker:

Descendants of John Walker

James Walker, a resident of the Fourth District, was born January 30, 1831, in Orange County, N. C., and was the third son born to Empson and Martha (Kerry) Walker. He came with his parents to Tennessee in 1842 and located in Haywood County, ten miles east of Brownsville, where he remained until they died. Mr. Walker's ancestors were of Irish and English descent. He was raised on a farm, working for his father until twenty-one years of age, then assumed the management of it and continued until he was thirty years old, when he moved to his present farm in Lauderdale County. While in Haywood County, in 1852, he was elected to the magistrate's office and served six years, and also served in this county six years. He went into the Confederate Army in May, 1861, as third lieutenant in Company K, Sixth Tennessee Infantry; but upon the re-organization of the Tennessee troops, he was in the Fourteenth Tennessee Cavalry, and was wounded at the battle of Shiloh, in the right arm, but was only disabled for a short time and remained in the service until the surrender. He was married in March, 1868, to Ellen Anthony, daughter of William A. and Eliza (Dycen) Anthony, and to them were born six children: Mark R., Malinda, James Empson, Albert S. (who died in infancy), Martha eline and Knox. Mr. Walker has accumulated his property since the war of his own efforts and is now in comfortable circumstances, and one of the most substantial citizens of the county. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church, is now fifty-six years old and never used any kind of intoxicating liquor or used tobacco in any form; never had any legal trouble on his own account, and was never sued in his life. Mr. Walker is a Democrat and a strict prohibitionist.

Notes for Henrietta (Harriet) Walker:

Information obtained from Claude Levi Walker. Married to cousin Benjamin Walker, then married his brother Anderson after he was killed in Civil War battle of Vicksburg, MI. Benjamin was sent to Memphis by the Confederacy and met and married his first cousin Hattie there; he then went on to Vicksburg to his death. Hattie bore Ben Anna shortly after the battle of Vicksburg and named her after Benjamin. Ben's brother Bruce Anderson Walker took a mule and cart and drove to Memphis to marry his first cousin sight unseen, bringing her back to Alamance county.

Notes for Benjamin Crawford Walker:

Information obtained from Claude Levi Walker. Married cousin Hattie Walker; Killed in war; Hattie married brother Anderson.

Benjamin was killed in the Battle of Vicksburg. Claude Walker said that he joined the Confederate Army and was shipped to Tennessee, and while there visited his uncle Epsom and married his first cousin, Hatti. Their daughter, Ben Anna was born soon after his death. After the war, Ben's brother Anderson Bruce took a mule and wagon to West Tennessee, married Hatti, and brought her and Ben Anna back to Caswell County, NC.

I somehow doubt part of this story. Ben's father, Levi, died in 1844 when Ben was probably about 11 years old. My guess is that Ben went to West Tennessee to live with uncle Empson's family soon after. There were 8 children in Levi and Rachel's family under the age of 14, and I just think that Ben probably was adopted by Empson's family. Then when the war came along, he joined the army from Tennessee. I found several Benjamin Walkers killed in the battle of Vicksburg, from both North Carolina and Tennessee.
